

June 6 and 7, 2013
Irotama Resort
Santa Marta, Colombia

Thursday June 6

7:00 – 8:00 Registration

8:00 – 8:30 Welcome

Opening Statements by the Superintendent of Industry and Commerce and the President of the Centre for Information Policy Leadership

- Pablo Felipe Robledo del Castillo (COLOMBIA) Superintendent of Industry and Trade
- Martin Abrams (USA) President. Centre for Information Policy Leadership

8:30 – 9:45 Panel 1. Personal Information and the Domain for Data Protection

This session will explore the dilemma of defining personal information. The traditional domain for data protection is personal data. Technology makes it possible to re-identify data that has been de-identified, making it personal data. However, defining personal data based on what is possible creates a very broad domain for data protection. In this session we will explore possible solutions.

Moderator:

- Gustavo Valbuena (COLOMBIA) Former Superintendent of Industry and Commerce

Speakers:

- Laura Juanes Micas (USA) Yahoo!
- Lina Gabriela Ornelas Nuñez (MEXICO) Law professor
- Jacobo Esquenazi. (USA) Hewlett Packard
